GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 18.—About ten thousand persons from this section of north Texas and southern Oklahoma arrived Sunday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Fay Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Thompson will entertain the seven o'clock dinner club Saturday evening at their home on North Shattuck avenue.

Mrs. A. R. Armstrong was hostess Wednesday to the Imperial Auction club, Mrs. Emery Stevens placing the substitute hand. Mrs. C. W. Tornau made the top score. The next meeting in two weeks will be next day, when each member will invite a guest.

Mrs. E. A. Sharp Finlay Stevens, W. Smith and G. P. Mehl, will be hostesses, at the home of Mrs. Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gartside of Rogers, Ark., are expected Tuesday, and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McFerrin on East Fifth street.

Mr. LeRoy Saylor returned Tuesday from a visit to Kansas City.

Mrs. Bess Gilbert Brewer will return this evening from a brief trip to Dallas and Duncan, Okla.

The Linwood Needleflock club was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. A. X. Campbell and Mrs. Albert H. Bell, additional guests of the afternoon being Misses C. C. Joy, John Shoemaker, T. H. Bentley and John Paul. The club is taking up charitably with this winter, and is especially devoting its attention to the care of a poor widow and seven children. The members make their offerings for a Thanksgiving dinner for this family. The president, Mrs. A. W. White, invited expressions of the guests on the work, and Mrs. Joy responded with some eloquent suggestions. The next meeting will be December 1, with Mrs. Edward Carter.
